"The Hunter Group joins global search partnership, Panorama, and becomes an approved member of the Association of Executive Search and Leadership Consultants (AESC), the gold seal for the global retained search industry."

October 26, 2016

Panorama, the global group of leading independent executive search firms, is delighted to announce the addition of new member, The Hunter Group LLC.

The Hunter Group, with headquarters in Metropolitan Detroit, Michigan, was founded in 1995 and is a leading independent U.S. executive search firm. With its diversified executive retained search practice and global corporate and social impact relationships across the U.S., The Hunter Group fits well into Panorama with its focus on advanced manufacturing and industrials, financial and professional services, social impact, higher education and board searches. The Hunter Group also joins as member of the Association of Executive Search and Leadership Consultants (AESC), the leading global executive search association which represents 300 search firms worldwide.

Craig Buffkin, Former Board Member of the Americas Council for the AESC and current Global Chairman of Panorama comments:

"We are impressed by The Hunter Group and the quality of the business they have built since 1995. I am personally delighted to welcome them into the AESC membership and Panorama. We will all benefit from their experience, presence and reputation in their markets which will complement the work of our Panorama partners in the U.S., Canada, UK, Germany, Brazil, India, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa.

The Hunter Group Partner, Blaire Miller, adds, "It is an honor to join these two prestigious organizations. AESC provides the global thought leadership on best practices for executive recruiting and leadership consulting. Panorama offers our clients an incredible global talent research capability and local talent and leadership recruiting expertise. We look forward to continued collaboration with this dynamic group of global search firms."
